Nearly one in three workers must obtain a license before starting their career.

Workers must spend thousands on educational courses.

Workers must spend hundreds of days training.

THE PROBLEM: OUT-OF-CONTROL LICENSING IS HOLDING WORKERS BACK

THE SOLUTION: LET WORKERS EARN WHILE THEY LEARN AND COUNT WORK EXPERIENCE TOWARDS LICENSING REQUIREMENTS

Workers can obtain licenses by:

- Completing an apprenticeship in the licensed occupation.
- Passing any necessary exams.
- Paying any necessary fees.
Apprenticeships

THE IMPACT

- Employers are desperate for workers. Loosening licensing restrictions would make it easier for Americans to fill a record number of open jobs.
- Those who complete apprenticeships have a higher employment rate.
- Those who complete apprenticeships earn higher starting salaries.
- Apprenticeships could reduce welfare dependency.

WHO IT HELPS

Apprenticeships allow individuals to pursue training in their chosen vocation while earning a living at the same time—a win-win for all.

- Dental hygenists
- Pharmacy technicians
- Home inspectors
- Real estate appraisers
- Respiratory therapists
- Radiologic technologists
