

Farm Bill Work Requirements

IN THE 50 STATES

FGA Alabama and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Alaska and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Arizona and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

249,900
ARIZONANS

would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

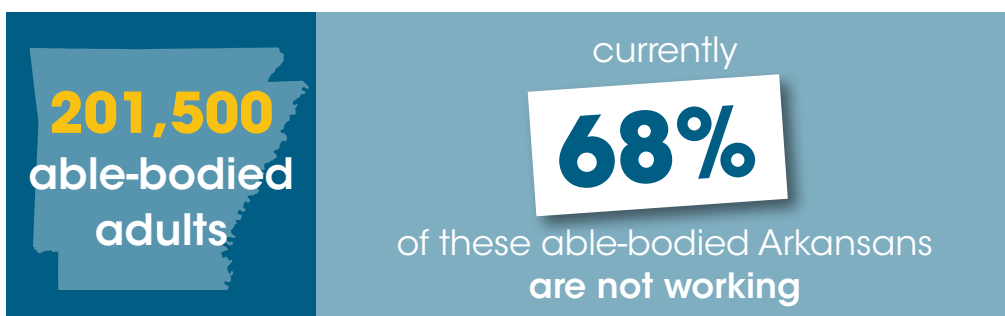

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA Arkansas and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA California and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

1,664,600
CALIFORNIANS
would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

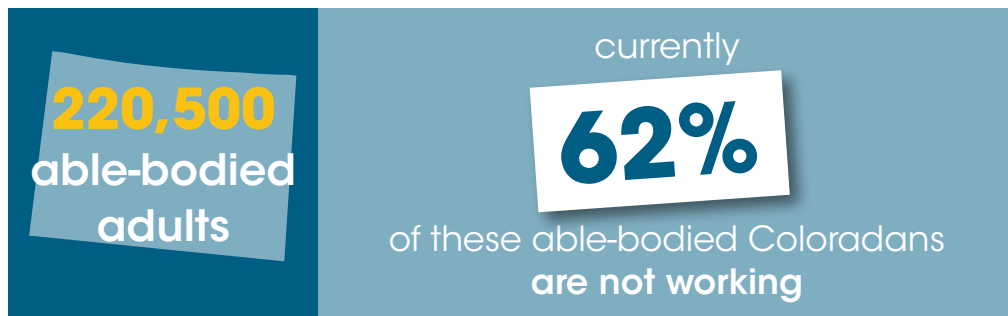

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA Colorado and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

118,100 COLORADANS

would be subject to work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Connecticut and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

127,300 CONNECTICUTERS would be subject to work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Delaware and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

39,200
DELAWAREANS

would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

District of Columbia and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

51,400
D.C. RESIDENTS

would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA Florida and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

1,088,500
FLORIDIANS

would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA Georgia and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

506,300
GEORGIANS

would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA Hawaii and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Idaho and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Illinois and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

584,300 ILLINOISANS

would be subject to work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Indiana and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Iowa and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

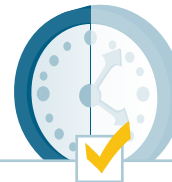

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Kansas and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

IT'S POPULAR

Voters support requiring able-bodied, working age adults to work or participate in a job training program at least part time in order to receive food stamps.

FGA Kentucky and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Louisiana and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

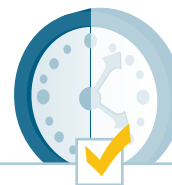

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Maine and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

IT'S POPULAR

Voters support requiring able-bodied, working age adults to work or participate in a job training program at least part time in order to receive food stamps.

FGA Maryland and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Massachusetts and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

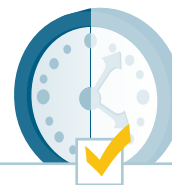

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Michigan and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

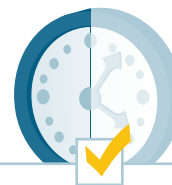

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Minnesota and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

83,800
MINNESOTANS

would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA Mississippi and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Missouri and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

268,700
MISSOURIANS
would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA Montana and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

25,800
MONTANANS

would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA Nebraska and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

31,300
NEBRASKANS would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA Nevada and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA New Hampshire and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

16,400
NEW HAMPSHIREITES

would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

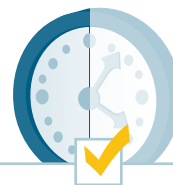

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA New Jersey and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

174,100
NEW JERSEYANS
would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA New Mexico and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

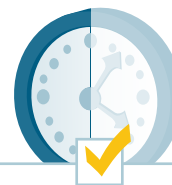

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA New York and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

671,400
NEW YORKERS

would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA North Carolina and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

484,000
NORTH CAROLINIANS
would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA North Dakota and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

8,000 NORTH DAKOTANS would be subject to work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Ohio and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Oklahoma and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

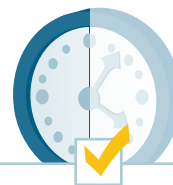

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Oregon and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Pennsylvania and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

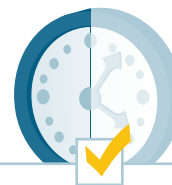

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Rhode Island and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

51,300
RHODE ISLANDERS

would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

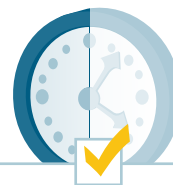

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA South Carolina and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

224,300 SOUTH CAROLINIANS would be subject to work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA South Dakota and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

18,500
SOUTH DAKOTANS
would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA Tennessee and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

321,300
TENNESSEANS would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA Texas and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

670,000
TEXANS

would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA Utah and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Vermont and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

17,700
VERMONTERS

would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA Virginia and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

FGA Washington and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

311,100
WASHINGTONIANS
would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

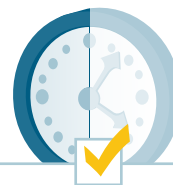

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA West Virginia and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

109,000
WEST VIRGINIANS
would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

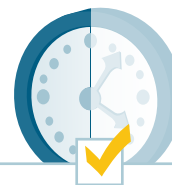

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA Wisconsin and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

254,900
WICONSINITES

would be subject to
work requirements

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

After Kansas and Maine implemented
work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to
work and their incomes
more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work
in low-wage jobs, but found employment
in over 600 industries, including
construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time
on welfare was
cut in half.

FGA Wyoming and the Farm Bill

Under the proposed Farm Bill, able-bodied adults will be required to work or participate in job training programs at least part-time as a condition of receiving food stamps. Individuals with disabilities, individuals over the age of 60, and parents with children under six would be exempt from the requirement.

UNDER THE 2018 FARM BILL

Note: these estimates do not account for waivers or 15% exemptions.

WHY DOES THIS MATTER? IT WORKS

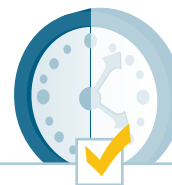

After Kansas and Maine implemented work requirements in food stamps:

Enrollees went back to work and their incomes more than doubled.

New workers didn't just go back to work in low-wage jobs, but found employment in over 600 industries, including construction, manufacturing, and nursing.

Their time on welfare was cut in half.

TheFGA.org

15275 Collier Boulevard | Suite 201-279 | Naples, FL 34119

(239) 244 8808