

Food Stamp Reform:

PROMOTING WORK AND MARRIAGE

Work is not a punishment or a penalty.

Work is more than just a paycheck. It provides dignity, social capital, opportunity, and creates the only path to self-sufficiency.

The bill does not treat married families unfairly or differently.

	Married parents with children under six	Unmarried cohabitating parents with children under six	Unmarried non-cohabitating parents with children under six	Single parents with children under six
Current Law	 No work requirement	 No work requirement	 No work requirement	 No work requirement
House Farm Bill	 One parent exempt	 One parent exempt	 One parent exempt	 One parent exempt

Work is a prerequisite for marriage.

78%

78% of unmarried women say a potential spouse having a steady job is very important.
