THE PROBLEM: VOTER TRUST IS SHATTERED

In some states, access to ballot counting centers is restricted—hindering poll watchers.

Private funds, such as “Zuckerbucks”, are funneled to local election offices and can impact election results.

Voters still struggle to find voter registration databases online.

THE SOLUTION: INCREASED TRANSPARENCY

Thankfully, there are efforts lawmakers can make to restore voter confidence. These include:

✓ Banning outside funding of elections

✓ Posting voter rolls online

✓ Live-streaming counting centers

✓ Requiring video surveillance of ballot drop boxes

✓ Authorizing timely post-election audits
