MISSOURI STATE SENATE

Missouri State Senator Bob Onder: We can't take our individual liberties for granted

Voters will be headed to the polls this coming election season with many issues front of mind like election integrity, workforce reforms, and inflation.

Here, Missouri State Senator Bob Onder discusses these issues and argues the need for reforms that will safeguard elections, get people back to work, and curb inflation. He encourages people to vote in person for the upcoming election in order to safeguard our liberties and make progress toward these much-needed reforms

"The last couple of years have been devastating for our economy, for the workforce."

—SEN. BOB ONDER
