MISSOURI STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Missouri State Rep. Dirk Deaton on Inflation, Education, and Elections

Missouri State Representative Dirk Deaton (R-Noel) knows what the people who elected him care about most, and what they deserve out of their government.

Here, Rep. Deaton sits down to outline his reform priorities on state elections, on education, and on inflation. He highlights the importance of voter confidence in elections and points out that parents should be well-informed on what their children are being taught in school. And he points out how out-of-control government spending has largely contributed to ever-increasing inflation.

“If we don’t have safe and secure elections, then we don’t have a country. That’s really what’s at stake.”
