

FGA PROFILE: Iowa Senate President Amy Sinclair

For new Senate President Amy Sinclair, there are two clear priorities for Iowa: improving schools and addressing property taxes.

Sen. Sinclair sat down with FGA to talk about her agenda for education in Iowa—scholarships for students, resources for teachers, and a parents' bill of rights—all while delivering for taxpayers and serving as a role model for young women.

“What’s going on in our schools, and property taxes. Those are the things that are getting at Iowans.”
