

DAN LAURSEN
WYOMING STATE SENATE

The importance of work with Sen. Dan Laursen

As a member of the Wyoming legislature, first as a state representative and currently as a state senator, Dan Laursen has fought to preserve the value and dignity of work. The decisions made in Cheyenne have an outsize impact on communities throughout Wyoming, from the main-street businesses that are struggling to find workers to the individual lives lifted by hard work and a good paycheck.

“There’s plenty of jobs, especially in Wyoming. There’s lots of signs in the windows. Even some businesses can’t even stay open—they just don’t have the help.”

—SEN. DAN LAURSEN

For more on what Wyoming is doing to strengthen the economy and promote work, visit TheFGA.org/state/wyoming.

Watch the full interview at:
TheFGA.org/videos

