

MICHAEL RULLI
OHIO STATE SENATE

Ohio Senator Michael Rulli on Saving Our Republic

As a grocery store owner and state senator in Ohio, Michael Rulli embodies the idea of a citizen-legislator. But he's growing more concerned with what he's seeing in our elections. When questions about the integrity of our elections arise, they undermine the legitimacy of the winner. In Rulli's first year as a senator, he saw out-of-state billionaires like Mark Zuckerberg use their resources to influence our elections, and he's fighting back.

*"This isn't a partisan thing. This is very bipartisan.
This is for the preservation of our country."*

—SEN. MICHAEL RULLI
